

Your Majesty,

Raif Badawi was sentenced to 10 years in prison in May 2014 after starting a website for social and political debate in Saudi Arabia. He was convicted for creating the 'Saudi Arabian Liberals' website and 'insulting Islam'. His sentence also included 1,000 lashes, a 10-year travel ban, a fine of 1 million Saudi Arabian riyals, and a ban on using media outlets.

I kindly urge you to release Raif Badawi immediately and unconditionally as he is a prisoner of conscience, detained solely for exercising his right to freedom of expression. I also urge you to quash his conviction and sentence, and to refrain from carrying out any punishment of flogging against him.

*Yours sincerely,
